Ohio Valley Goodwill Industries Staff Members Receive Award From South West Ohio Rehabilitation Association

Cincinnati, OH · December 8, 2008 · Ohio Valley Goodwill Industries is proud to announce that two of its professional staff members were recognized with awards from the South West Ohio Rehabilitation Association (SWORA). The awards were given at SWORA's 2008 awards banquet on December 5th held at the Sheraton North Hotel.

The organization was delighted that Kelly Manns and Patty Knue were selected for the 2008 "Manager of the Year" award and the "Rehabilitation Practitioner of the Year," respectively. Kelly is the Senior Manager of Goodwill's training, evaluation and placement departments and Patty serves as an evaluator in the Office Procedures and Computer Technology training program. Kelly's nomination was submitted by her staff team and Patty's by a student that she works with in the program.

The award recipients were especially honored to have the support and congratulations of Goodwill Board Chairman, Mr. Charlie Wright. Ohio Valley Goodwill is very proud of its award-winning staff team and congratulates both Kelly and Patty on their hard work and dedication.

SWORA is the leading rehabilitation organization in southwest Ohio and is a member of the Ohio Rehabilitation Association.

As one of the largest providers of vocational training and job placement services in Southwestern Ohio, Goodwill has had a long history of excellence in the quality of services it provides to Greater Cincinnati. Last year (2007), Ohio Valley Goodwill Industries provided service to more than 2,400 people and placed 741 individuals into competitive community jobs. With support from the local community, Goodwill helps put people to work.

Manns resides in Lebanon and Knue in the Village of Woodlawn.
