Let's GO GREEN Together

Ohio Valley Goodwill is transitioning to an on-line electronic version of both the organization's newsletter and annual report. Each of these publications will be available on our website at: www.cincinnati goodwill.org (just simply go to the ABOUT US tab and click on MEDIA).

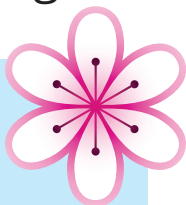

Please email us and let us know if you wish to move to the electronic format.

You can simply send us an email at: shannon@cincigoodwill.org and let us know if you would like to read both publications on-line and remove your contact information from our mailing list. If we do not hear back from you, we will continue to mail you a copy of our newsletter and yearly annual report. It's just another way we are working to assist the environment and helping to go "Green" at Ohio Valley Goodwill Industries.

Thank you for your continued support of Ohio Valley Goodwill Industries and the many people we serve each year!

Basically, going green means to live life, as an individual as well as a community, in a way that is friendly to the natural environmental and is sustainable for the earth.

Spring Is a Great Time to De-clutter Your Home and Give to Goodwill!

Spring is a great time to look around your home, basement, garage and even your office in an effort to get organized and de-clutter. Most people are familiar with the idea of donating clothes and other household items to Goodwill and the benefits it provides to help to organize your environment. When you give to Goodwill you can be sure that your donations are benefiting people with disabilities, our nation's veterans, and others with barriers to employment. Goodwill is proud of the programs and services the organization is able to provide thanks to the generous contributions the organization receives from donors in the Greater Cincinnati community. For more than 100 years, Ohio Valley Goodwill Industries has been helping to put your donations to work; using funds generated to support skill training and employment programs for tens of thousands of people here in our community.

Ohio Valley Goodwill makes it easy to donate with donation centers located throughout Greater Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky. With 33 Goodwill Donation Centers throughout the area it makes it easy to de-clutter and become better organized. "Donations to Goodwill have a direct and positive impact on the lives of people right here in our community and you can be sure that each and every donation will benefit programs and services for the thousands of people we serve every year," said Eric Scott, Goodwill's Donations Supervisor. Goodwill's retail stores are filled with clothing for the entire family, household items, shoes, furniture, small appliances, and other items that are available at costs that can help keep families on a budget!

Remember, now is the best time to get organized and de-cluttering by donating to Ohio Valley Goodwill. We gladly accept your generous donations. For more information on donating to Goodwill visit our website at www.cincinnati goodwill.org/donate. Ohio Valley Goodwill Industries thanks you for your continued support!

Goodwill's Service Guild Presents Gift to the Organization

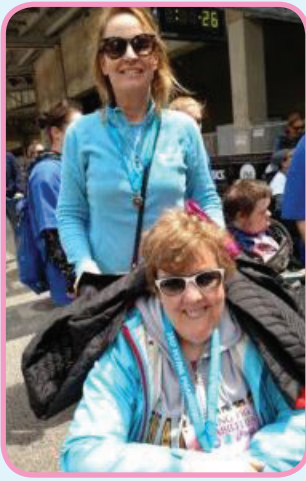

At Ohio Valley Goodwill's annual Holiday Luncheon on Friday, December 15, 2017, the Goodwill Service Guild presented President and CEO, Joe Byrum, with three special gift checks for the organization. The Service Guild presented a check for $20,000 to be used for programs and services to help support the organization's mission, a check for $5,000 to be used to help support programs for veterans, and an additional check for $1,000 for Goodwill's CARE Program. In presenting the checks to Joe Byrum, Service Guild President, Sue Bureson, commented that the volunteer group is always pleased that it is able to support Goodwill through its fundraising efforts. "The Service Guild is delighted to be able to support Ohio Valley Goodwill, our veterans, and the CARE Program. Our fundraising efforts during the year are planned to help to support Goodwill and its important programs and services," said Bureson.

The Service Guild provides many programs and special services to individuals who are served by Ohio Valley Goodwill Industries. In addition to operating the Treasure Island Gift Shop inside the Tri-County retail store, the Service Guild plans several bus trips during the year, coordinates the semi-annual Mini Fests, and is involved in other fundraising activities. Also, throughout the year, the Service Guild assists with the planning and support for special meals and events for veterans and the individuals served by Goodwill.

For over 80 years, the Service Guild has been providing outreach and support for Ohio Valley Goodwill Industries. An additional purpose of the Service Guild is to assist in helping the community to be aware of Goodwill's mission. "We have appreciated all of the work that the Service Guild does on behalf of our organization" said CEO, Joe Byrum.

Ohio Valley Goodwill thanks the Service Guild for their work and dedication to Ohio Valley Goodwill and thanks its many members for their continued support!

Auto Donations to Goodwill

Most people are very familiar with the idea of donating clothes and other items to Goodwill but did you know that you can even donate cars and other vehicles as well? For the past fifteen years, Ohio Valley Goodwill has managed its own onsite Auto Auction at Goodwill's corporate headquarters in Woodlawn. Vehicles donated to Ohio Valley Goodwill Industries stay right here in Greater Cincinnati and the best part is that donations from the Auto Auction program go directly to the organization's mission of putting people to work! Proceeds from Goodwill's Auto Auction program help to provide services that are designed to assist individuals with disabilities and homeless veterans in the Greater Cincinnati area.

When you make a donation to the Goodwill Auto Auction you'll feel good knowing that you are supporting a charitable organization and when you donate you may even be eligible for a tax advantage. Donating vehicles to Goodwill has a big impact on communities in Greater Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky, the kind of good impact that the IRS wants to encourage. When you donate a vehicle to Goodwill, even a boat or motorcycle, you may be eligible to claim it on your itemized taxes. To find out more, see the guidelines from the IRS for charitable contributions at www.irs.gov or by calling 1-800-829-1040.

Ohio valley Goodwill makes it easy to donate with donation centers located throughout the Greater Cincinnati area as well as a donation partnership with the Superior Automotive Group and Mike Albert Direct.
