Goodwill Looking Forward to Grand Opening of New Hamilton Store!

Ohio Valley Goodwill is looking forward to the Grand Opening of its brand NEW Hamilton store in late Fall. Currently finishing construction at its new site at 1555 Main Street in downtown Hamilton, the new store will be the 18th store in the network of Goodwill stores in the Greater Cincinnati area.

The 12,000 square foot facility will offer an enjoyable shopping experience for local residents and interested visitors as well as a convenient drive-thru donation center. "We are working hard on plans for the Grand Opening celebration of the new Hamilton store," said Jeff Eastham, Operations Director. "Goodwill is looking forward to returning to the Hamilton community. We previously had a store located in the area in 2009, and we are excited about returning to the vital Hamilton business district. We will have an official announcement about details for the Grand Opening Celebration event coming soon!"

As loyal Goodwill shoppers know, it's not only a treat to enjoy the low bargain prices at Goodwill, it's also fun to see the new fashion finds that arrive every day at our store locations. With an ever-changing inventory, Hamilton shoppers will discover something new every time they shop.

The best part is, when you shop Goodwill, you are doing good for your community. Proceeds benefit the organization's more than a century-long mission of helping people with disabilities and our nation's veterans in the Greater Cincinnati community to achieve personal success. Watch for upcoming announcements about the new Hamilton store coming soon!

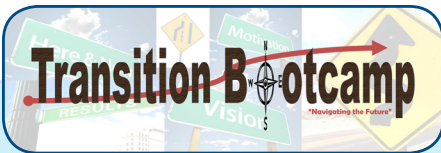

Let's GO GREEN Together

Ohio Valley Goodwill is transitioning to digital formats for its newsletter and annual report. While these publications will always be available on our website at <https://www.cincinnati-goodwill.org/about-us/media/>, this is the final print version of our quarterly publications.

Effective January 2019, all corporate communications will be presented in a digital-only format in accordance with our commitment to environmental preservation and responsible recycling.

Ohio Valley Goodwill Celebrates Success of 2018 Transition Boot Camp!

The 2018 Transition Boot Camp held on Thursday, November 1st at the Sharonville Convention Center was a major success with more than 500 participants attending this year's event. Ohio Valley Goodwill was proud to be a Gold Sponsor for the 9th annual event which is designed to provide parents and caregivers, educators and other professionals working with youth and young adults with valuable information about planning for the transition from school to adult life.

The 2018 conference featured more than 20 training sessions covering such topics as Pre-Employment Skills; Educational, Training and Vocational Options; as well as Pathways to Employment. Also, a Vendor Fair with more than 50 exhibitors was a highlight of this year's Transition Boot Camp where parents and professionals had the opportunity to find out more about the community resources available.

Ohio Valley Goodwill was pleased not only to be a Gold Sponsor but also, a co-presenter of the session, "Pathways to Employment." Goodwill Employment Services Manager, Matt Burnheimer joined with co-presenters to share information about the many opportunities available for individuals in the Greater Cincinnati community.

Ohio Valley Goodwill is a member of the planning committee for the Transition Boot Camp event and is pleased to work collaboratively with four County Boards of Developmental Disabilities as well as Opportunities for Ohioans with Disabilities and a host of service provider agencies on the annual conference event. The planning committee is led by the University of Cincinnati Center for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities in partnership with more than 20 community agencies.

Goodwill and Queen Bee Celebrate 2018 Half Marathon and Expo Success!

With thousands of Greater Cincinnati women (and a few male helper bees) flying around downtown in anticipation of the launch of the 2018 Queen Bee Half Marathon this year, the Goodwill Bee-Tique was a beehive of activity on Friday, October 12th. The ever-popular Goodwill "Bee-Tique" was swarmed by eager Queen Bees who love the running gear at unbeatable prices. The Goodwill "Selfie" photo booth is also a favorite attraction and attracted dozens of Queen Bees in training.

Celebrating 5 years of the Goodwill Bee-Tique!

This year's Queen Bee followed its usual scenic route through Greater Cincinnati neighborhoods including Eden Park and other landmark communities and ended in a big post-race celebration event at Lytle Park. More than 5700 athletes buzzed around the post-event party which is designed to be the crowning touch for all of the Queen Bee participants. As a Royal Sponsor of the event, Goodwill always has the opportunity to take the stage and with much fanfare, announce the winner of a luxurious spa pampering basket truly fit for a Queen. Entrants receive a chance to win when they donate to Goodwill during the Queen Bee weekend event, and the winner is always selected at the post-race party.

As a Royal Sponsor of the Queen Bee Half Marathon event, Ohio Valley Goodwill is pleased to support this unique celebration which honors women and promotes the power of community. For more than a century, Goodwill has been a vital member of the Greater Cincinnati community helping more than 3400 people with disabilities and our nation's veterans annually to achieve personal success. "Goodwill is proud of being a sponsor and supporter of the 5th annual Queen Bee Half Marathon," said Sharon Hannon, Marketing Director, and Event Coordinator.

Goodwill Reaches Shoppers and Fashion Fans in an exciting New Way!

Goodwill's trend-setting new Facebook Live weekly broadcast "Thursdays at One" pulls in a whole new audience of shoppers and fashion fans. The weekly shows began in March of 2018 with Public Information Officer and media personality, Michael Flannery and expanded in late May with the addition of co-host Alisha Tyler, Marketing Specialist, and Fashion Advisor.

Reaching more than 20,000 viewers since the Facebook Live series began, Goodwill has attained record store sales in recent months. In June, the new outreach effort continued with the launch of a new Fashion Blog which is updated weekly and provides on-topic, engaging content for fashion-lovers and bargain hunters alike. "We hope to reach not only our wonderful, loyal shoppers who we love but also, to attract a whole new audience who may be unaware of the tremendous value that comes with shopping at Goodwill," said Alisha Tyler, Fashion Advisor.

The Holiday season is an especially good time to take advantage of the great sales and incredible deals on unique finds at Goodwill's network of 17-soon-to-be 18 retail stores in the Greater Cincinnati area. For a complete list, visit www.goodwillbargains.com and check it out this holiday shopping season.

Also, as you think about de-cluttering this holiday season, don't forget that Goodwill has 32 conveniently located Donation Centers in the Greater Cincinnati area which will be more than happy to accept your generous donations.

So, remember as you prepare for the holidays this year, Goodwill can provide you with insider scoop on Fabulous Fashion ideas. Join us for Facebook Live at www.facebook.com/cincigoodwill every Thursday at 1 p.m. for Inspiring, On-Trend Fashion Tips. And be sure to Like, Follow and Share!

Ohio Valley Goodwill Honored with Recognition from County Board Partners!

Ohio Valley Goodwill was honored to be singled out for recognition by two of its County Board partners this year; Clermont DD and the Warren County Board of Developmental Disabilities. The recognition events took place during October and included the annual Good Fortune Dinner hosted by Clermont DD and an awards ceremony sponsored by Warren County DD.

The "Good Fortune" Recognition Dinner is presented by Clermont DD as an opportunity to honor providers, advocates, self-advocates, employees, foster parents, volunteers, business partners, and community leaders. Ohio Valley Goodwill has worked in partnership with Clermont DD for many years in providing training and employment services to people with disabilities in Clermont County and has a Vocational Services Center located on Grissom Drive in Batavia. The Goodwill team was delighted to be presented with not one but two awards at the 2018 Good Fortune dinner; the Provider Appreciation Award as well as the Volunteer Appreciation Award.

Lisa Schneider with 2018 Provider Appreciation Award and Paula Smith with Volunteer Award.

James Magee, Sharon Hannon with Megan Manuel, WCBDD Superintendent and Paul Mitchell Representative.

Also, Ohio Valley Goodwill team members, James Magee, and Sharon Hannon were pleased to accept a recognition award from a partner agency, the Warren County Board of Developmental Disabilities, on Friday, October 19th. The award was presented in acknowledgment of the fashion sponsorship provided by Goodwill for the Holiday Fashion Show presented by the Board last December. The first-ever fashion show featured fashion items from Goodwill with hair and make-up provided by Paul Mitchell Schools. The recognition award was a pleasant surprise from the Warren County Board of DD who has partnered with Ohio Valley Goodwill for many years on programs and services for individuals served in the Warren County community.

Remember, Shop and Save this Holiday Season at Goodwill!

The best part is when you shop at Goodwill, you not only save on fabulous, truly unique finds, you also bring good home. When you put an awesome find in your Goodwill cart, you're not just thrifting. You're being a local hero. Because every Goodwill item you bring home brings good jobs to your neighbors. So go ahead and buy that glittery top. It doesn't just look good on you - it does good for everyone!
