Ohio Valley Goodwill's Employment Services Team Launches New Website for Employers!

Cincinnati, OH -- January 29, 2013 -- Ohio Valley Goodwill's Employment Services Team is excited to announce the launch of its brand new website: www.goodwillemploymentservices.com. The new site is designed to provide local employers with an easily accessible source of information about fulfilling their work force needs, incentives related to hiring individuals with disabilities, as well as available supports to ensure success of the new employee on the job.

For more than 96 years, Ohio Valley Goodwill has been providing skill training and job placement services for individuals seeking to obtain community employment. The organization has a proven track record that is reflected in the number of individuals placed each year as well as the many awards garnered in recognition of its placement efforts. Goodwill works closely with local employers to provide an available, trained and dependable workforce that is supported in an individualized fashion to ensure that employer expectations are met and job performance is guaranteed.

Among the many services that Goodwill's Employment Services team is able to offer, are employee matching, employer incentive programs and on the job supports. "Our team of Employment Services team members are eager to talk with local employers about how Goodwill can assist them in meeting their business needs and provide them with a resource for hiring qualified employees," said Marty Caffrey, Employment Services Manager.

To find out more about how Goodwill's Employment Services team can help your business this year, please visit the new website at www.goodwillemploymentservices.com or contact: Marty Caffrey at (513) 771-4800, ext. 6239 or email: mcaffrey@cincigoodwill.org. Ohio Valley Goodwill's Employment Services team has a proven track record of success of helping put people to work in the Greater Cincinnati community.

To find out more about their award-winning services, please visit www.goodwillemploymentservices.com. Ohio Valley Goodwill's Employment Services team is dedicated to helping businesses and employees achieve success through productive employment.
